Harborth, Pa.

Dear Mr. English,

The attractive wreath of pink carnations tied with lavender ribbon which was sent by Central Church to be placed on my father's grave on the 100th anniversary of the church, arrived early Sunday morning, and just as the clock in the cemetery tolled 11 A. M. I placed the wreath in front of the tombstone, after which my husband offered a word of prayer. My Uncle and Aunt Mr. & Mrs. John D. Ketcham, and Miss Edna Selfridge were present also and we all felt that prayer was going up at that time in Central Church.

Hoping this finds you and Mrs. Englis in the best of health, I remain,

Sincerely,
Emily J. Munro

GIVE not only your money, your time, your talents, but YOURSELF?

We appreciate the love made by our Choir under the direction of Mr. Clifford F. Schmitt.

As the and Mrs. begin to teach for a brief and our members go with them. We trust they will return refreshed in every part to do even a greater work for our Master. When they leave and serve.

In Memoriam

REV. LOYAL YOUNG GRAHAM, Jr.

Rev. Loyal Young Graham, Jr., Thirteenth Pastor of Central Presbyterian Church, passed from this earthly life to life eternal on Sunday morning, December 20th, 1936, after a brief illness. He was born in Philadelphia, the youngest son of Rev. Loyal Young Graham, D.D., Pastor of the Olivet Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia forty years, and Sarah Jane McCoy Graham.

He was Ordained and Installed Pastor of the Narberth Presbyterian Church, Narberth, Pa., December 22nd, 1896, at the age of 22 years, serving that Church fourteen years. Going from there to the First Presbyterian Church of Rahway, N. J., where he served for twelve years, coming to Central Church March 27th, 1922, serving until December 20th, 1936, when he was called to the Church Triumphant. His body was laid to rest in the West Laurel Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia, on Tuesday, December 22nd. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Florence Ketcham Graham and two children, Mrs. Emily McCoy Graham Munro and Loyal Ketcham Graham, and mourned by many friends.

In sincere appreciation of Mr. Graham's work we say:

"Sleep on, true Soldier of the Cross, Rest on, Oh faithful servant of God,—true to your high calling, in Christ Jesus.
With the Apostle Paul, you can truly say I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith!
Henceforth there is laid up for you a crown of life
Which the Lord so graciously bestows upon those who love him.
Rest on, faithful servant, till we meet again, some bright morning."

OFFICERS OF THE CHURCH.
